Θέμα Εγγράφου: OMC MED Energy Conference & Exhibition 2023 | Call for Ideas
Mediterranean Region | Application deadline extended

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Colleague,

we hope our email finds you well.

We would kindly inform you that the deadline for applying for the 2023 Call for Ideas – Mediterranean Region has been extended to April 2nd, 2023, and that you can find all the related information in the attached flyer and brochure, and at the following link: www.omc.it

The winners will be invited to present their projects at the Innovation Room that will be held on May 25th, 2023 during the OMC – MED Energy Conference in Ravenna (Italy).

All visa, travel and accommodation expenses will be covered for the whole duration of the Conference (May 23rd – May 25th) by the OMC organization.

Ravenna, hosting the 2023 OMC – MED Energy Conference, is well- known for its historical, artistic and cultural roots, represents a jewel in the national scene, rich in UNESCO heritage monuments. It is considered world capital for ancient mosaics and some of the best examples of them are here conveniently located.

We would very much appreciate if you could spread this opportunity among your contacts, especially students you deem to be particularly promising and/or whoever may be willing to promote the Call for Ideas.

Please, note that the candidature procedures are totally free of charge and easily managed by sending the documents required by the Official Announcement at the following e-mail address: Callforideas@omc.it.

To download and consult the Press release please follow the link

Being pleased to provide further information or clarifications via email or call to you or whoever you may suggest us, we remain at disposal.
