Subject: Harvard Medical School - Semmelweis University training program

Dear Esteemed Partner,

Please find attached our previous letter from Prof. Béla Merkely, Rector of Semmelweis University, regarding a scholarship offer for Harvard Medical School and Semmelweis University's joint program.

Registration for the program is still open at the following website:
hms.harvard.edu/Semmelweis.

For the scholarship learners need to apply
here: <https://semmelweis.hu/nea/en/semmelweis-harvard-scholarship/>

The early application / priority deadline is 12 May.

We are holding an info session to answer all the questions learners might have. Please circulate the zoom link of the event among the interested parties. The participants will have an opportunity to ask the questions and casually chat with HMS team and the program directors.

Topic: CE-CSRT 2023: Information Session

Time: May 4, 2023 16:00 CET
